SomaLogic Joins ALDA

Alexandria, VA (August 19, 2016) — SomaLogic, Inc., based in Boulder, Colorado, is the latest company to join ALDA.

SomaLogic was founded in 2000 with the goal of improving the well-being and quality of life by transforming how diseases are detected and diagnosed. The company's proprietary proteomics technology measures thousands of proteins across a wide range of concentrations in a small sample volume, with a wide variety of applications in life science research, diagnostics, therapeutics and applied markets.

Byron Hewett, CEO, will be the official representative to ALDA, and Evan King, Vice President, Life Science Tools/Commercial Operations, will be the alternate representative.

For more information regarding ALDA, contact Mike Duff, President, at 703-647-6214. More information regarding ALDA, its purposes, objectives and programs, and links to its members' websites can be found at www.thealda.org

Based on the Washington DC suburb of Alexandria, VA, ALDA is an industry trade association for companies that develop and supply life science, analytical and diagnostic products and services used to conduct research, drug discovery, QA/QC testing and diagnostics in a wide range of industries and applications. Major customer segments including pharmaceuticals, biotech, academic and government research, food safety and environmental testing, personalized medicine and diagnostics.

ALDA's Mission is to be an advocate for our industry and a valuable aid to our members' global business success and to their customers' advancement of healthcare, science and industrial innovation by providing meetings with strategic content, networking, global market and business intelligence, and insights on emerging technologies, markets and business strategies.
