Illumina's Mark Stapley Elected to ALDA Board

Alexandria, VA (October 3, 2016) — Marc Stapley, Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer of Illumina, has been elected to the ALDA Board of Directors. He succeeds Jay Flatley, who stepped down after more than 20 years of service.

Mr. Stapley joined Illumina in 2012 and holds the role of Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer, and Chief Financial Officer with responsibility for all G&A functions. Previously, Stapley served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. He is also a member of Illumina's executive management team, which is responsible for directing all aspects of company strategy, planning, and operations.

Mr. Stapley was previously Senior Vice President, Finance at Pfizer and was responsible for global financial processes and systems, leading integration efforts in both the Wyeth and King Pharmaceutical acquisitions and providing oversight to the company's largest technology investment program. Prior to Pfizer, he served in a variety of senior finance roles at Alcatel-Lucent, including Americas CFO.

Mr. Stapley began his career as an Auditor at Coopers & Lybrand. He holds a First Class BSc (Honors) in Mathematics from The University of Reading (England) and is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.
